OUR SHIPPING POLICY

We do our best to make sure your order arrives in perfect condition, shipping via FedEx. Priority overnight and Saturday delivery may be available for an additional fee, depending on your location. Shipping is charged per address, $30 minimum, based on weight. Please double check your shipping address before submitting your order. Unless you select "Signature Required for Delivery," FedEx will leave your order at the address you specify — even if no one is there to receive it. Quail Creek Farm is not responsible for packages stolen or damaged after they are delivered. We suggest shipping to a business location whenever possible. When a signature is required and no one is present, FedEx will make two more attempts before returning the package to us — but if a shipment is damaged after the first delivery attempt, undeliverable because the address you provide is incorrect, or if the order is returned to us by FedEx, Quail Creek Farm is unable to refund either the purchase price or shipping fees.
